

DiLorenzo & Company
Certified Public Accountants

Employment Announcements

We are pleased to announce that David Spencer joined DiLorenzo & Company in August 2016. David is a CPA candidate and graduate of the University of Oregon. He majored in accounting and minored in finance, with a focus on credit analysis. During his academic career he won numerous academic awards and competitions, including the PWC X-Act Competition. David was a member of the Oregon Business Consulting Group Management Team. He was also an active member of student government serving on several presidential level committees.

In his leisure time David enjoys spending time with family, traveling internationally and exploring the great outdoors.

Welcome, David!
